MacArthur Replies to Rep. Miller

Asserts U.S. Must Not Become Like Our Foreign Foes

By Jack Bell

WASHINGTON, April 13_(AP)_ Gen. Douglas MacArthur has replied to a congressman's request that he hold himself available for the Republican presidential nomination with an assertion that the United States "must not inadvertently slip into the same condition internally as the one which we fight externally."

In an exchange of correspondence with Rep. A. L. Miller (R-Neb.), the Southwest Pacific commander wrote that he did not anticipate in any way the fulfilment of "flattering predictions" the House member had made that MacArthur could win the nomination and as Miller put it, "carry every state in the nation."

Miller, who said he had met the General only once, is active in the draft-MacArthur campaign which has netted the Southwest Pacific commander three convention delegates and has seen him win impressively the Illinois preferential primary against a political unknown.

In a letter date February 11, MacArthur wrote Miller that he appreciated very much the appreciated very much the "scholarly letter" the House member had addressed to him January 27, in which Miller said "more than a political revolution" against the centralization of power in the federal government, was underway and added:

PROLOGUE: A Colorado farmer, looking for some strayed calves on a September evening in 1919, comes upon a sick stranger who burdens him with an important written message. Seeking help, the farmer falls and knocks himself out. When he revives both stranger and message are gone. No one be-

Byrnes prefaced his discussion of post-war plans by cautioning that winning the war remains an immense task. He said the shift from the defensive to the offensive already had permitted cutbacks, however, adding that cuts in the army program for 1944 and 1945, excluding the air service, amount to sixteen and three-quarter billion dollars. A study just completed, he said, indicates the spare parts program of the army and navy can be reduced $1,402,-000,000 by next Dec. 31.

The War Mobilization Director also declared that inflation could defeat the whole post-war program and called for maintenance of present price and wage controls without change.

Enemy Casualties Double Allies NEW YORK, April 12.—(AP)— War Mobilization Director James F. Byrnes estimated tonight that enemy casualties are almost double those of the Allies.

Yet he warned that "the roads to Berlin and Tokyo are not only long, but bloody," and said "alkilled, wounded, missing and prisoners, number 173,239; United Kingdom, 667,157; and the Soviet Republics, 4,500,000."
